"When I Must Leave You" – Helen Steiner Rice

*When I must leave you for a little while Please do not grieve
and shed wild tears
and hug your sorrow to you through the years*

*Start out bravely with a gallant smile and for my sake
and in my name,
live on and do all things the same*

*Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
but fill each waking hour
in useful ways*

Reach out your hand in comfort and cheer, and I in turn will comfort you and hold you near

Never, never be afraid to die For I am waiting for you in the sky

“ To The Family Of Anna Rose Getz,

Wishing you peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your hearts.

Below is a saying that we think sums up the situation:

You don't get over it, you just get through it. You don't get by it, because you can't get around it. It doesn't 'get better'; it just gets different. Everyday... Grief puts on a new face.... Wendy Feireisen

“ Melissa, Walt and families,
We can not imagine the grief you all feel. Anna was and will always be such a beautiful girl. I remember coaching her in AYSO, she would never turn down playing any position and she would go up against anyone, even the boys.
Heaven gained an awesome Angel. May God and your memories someday help to comfort all of you.
To all her wonderful friends, hang tough and remember and honor her with a smile as she would you.
Sincerely, Monica, George and Collin

“ Anna Rose Getz wasn't one to be one in a million. She was about one in 7 billion. At her worst, she was better than my best. Anna could light up anybody's world by walking into it. Her jokes and dancing were the best you'd ever hear and see. Just her smile could make you smile. Whenever she'd laugh, you would laugh along with her, because her laugh is just so contagious. I grew up with the Getz family, Anna's second youngest sister, Erin Grace, was one of my best friend up til now, with many more years to come. As a whole, Anna was one of the most joyest people I've met, she was loving and kind, and loved to make people laugh. She was intelligent and atheltic also. Anna was like an older sister to me, giving me makeovers and tips, helping me out what to wear, because anyone who knows Anna knows she was quite the fashionista. I remember she would complain about having no clothes, and she would have mounds of them laying on the floor saying "I really need to get some new clothes, these are all ugly." I know she is the most beautiful angel up in heaven, probably making everyone laugh hysterically. There will not be a day I won't think of her, she'll always be in my thoughts. Prayers go out to the Getz family and friends. I love you Anna G.

Bailey Steinruck - June 15, 2015 at 12:55 PM

“ Anna was a really good friend. I miss her so much. I wish I could have her back just to see her smile and hear that laugh again. Anna was there for me even when I didnt need her to be. She gave me advice on lots of things. Both her and Cassie did. Anna always put everyone else before herself. I'm always gonna remember Anna by her contagious laugh, her beautiful smile, and ever perfect little thing about her. She always made me laugh even if it wasn't that funny. Her laugh made me laugh even harder. She always knew how to make smile and make my day so much better. I'm sure she did this for a lot of people. Lots of prayers to the Getz family and relitives. I will forever miss her. Love you Anna G. RIP AND FLY HIGH BEAUTIFUL 💕💕💕

“ Anna was and always will be my sister. She always did whatever she could just to make me laugh. I have never laughed harder with anyone else. She would always do these funny dances and try to do the same exact thing that i was doing because I was serious about the dancing. She told me stories all the time because she thought they were funny and she knew i would laugh right along with her. She would ask me to take her picture out in the freezing cold or in the rain until she actually liked one of them. I would tell her i liked the picture but she said it wasn't good enough. But to sum up Anna as a person, she was beautiful inside and out, full of laughter, caring, and one of the most kind-hearted people ever. I will always love Anna, because she was and is truly amazing.

“ I've known Anna my whole life and I'm going to cherish every moment I had with her. I grew up with Erin being my bestfriend and always being around the whole Getz family. They are amazing and there so strong. Anna is the most perfect person I've ever met. She's beyond gorgeous and I remember this one time she tried to teach me how to do a back handspring on a trampoline and I epically failed but we just laughed it off and it was great. I remember her always doing my hair and makeup for my dances we had at school and being an all around great person. Nobody will ever forget her smiling face and contagious laugh. I love you Anna Rose Getz ❤️

Our hearts have been so very heavy and words simply cannot express our sincere sympathy. Chase thought very highly of Anna, she must have been a good person.
A quote from the late Maya Angelou seems fitting for Anna, "People will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel."
Please take strength in knowing Anna made people feel good and she was a positive in her friends' lives.
