

Cora S. (Sharp) Miller

April 20, 1922 - September 1, 2011

Cora S. (Sharp) Miller, 89, of 55 Toy Factory Road, Stillwater, and formerly of Chester Springs, Chester County, PA, died Thursday morning, September 1, 2011 at her home.

Born April 20, 1922 in West Chester, PA, she was a daughter of the late Harry and Florence Mae (Wertz) Sharp. She was preceded in death by her husband, Harold E. Miller, on January 7, 2010.

Mrs. Miller graduated from Coatesville High School and then the Coatesville Hospital School of Nursing where she earned her R. N. degree. She also received her Public Health Degree from the University of Pennsylvania.

She had been employed as an R. N. with the Northern Chester County Visiting Nurses Association and was also a school nurse for the Downingtown Area School District for 10 years.

During World War II, she was a U. S. Army Corps Nurse stationed at Deshon Army Hospital in Butler, Pennsylvania.

She was a member of St. John's United Church of Christ, Phoenixville. She was an avid Philadelphia Phillies fan and enjoyed watching their games on television.

Surviving, are her 3 children: Betty Young and her husband, Robert, of Downingtown; Joyce Pannella and her husband, Michael, of Phoenixville; Joan Miller and her husband, Donald Hess, Stillwater, with whom she made her home; 4 grandsons: Keith and Andrew Young; Philip and Matthew Pannella; a brother, Joseph Sharp and his wife, Margaret Ann, of Glenmoore, PA and a sister-in-law, Dorothy Sharp, of Pottstown.

In addition to her husband, Harold, she was preceded in death by a brother, John Sharp.

Services will be held in Downingtown, PA.

Tribute Wall

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. May all the memories give you the comfort you need during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Elaine Smith & June Favinger##imported-end##

September 05, 2011 at 03:03 PM