

David S. "D.J." Jarrard

August 15, 1955 - January 27, 2015

David S. "D. J." Jarrard, 59, of Market Street, Berwick, died Tuesday, January 27, 2015 at his home.

Born August 15, 1955 in Berwick, he was a son of Ruth (Spangler) Jarrard.

D. J. was a 1973 graduate of Berwick High School and had been employed in construction for most of his working career.

His hobbies included music and reading. He was an avid Berwick Dawgs football fan, a Penn State fan as well as a North Carolina Tarheels Basketball fan. He cherished the friendships that he enjoyed over the years with his buddies.

Surviving, in addition to his mother, Ruth, are his two sisters: Jill R. Hudelson and her husband, Gene, of Danville; Nan L. Walton and her husband, David W. Walton, Jr., of Etters and a nephew, Donald Yarmol, of Stillwater.

He was preceded in death by a sister, Jeanne Yarmol in December of 1970.

Memorial Services will be held Monday, February 2, 2015 at 11 AM at Bower Memorial United Methodist Church, Second and Pine Streets, Berwick, with the Rev. Ralph B. Hartenbach, officiating. A Visitation will be held Monday from 10 AM until the time of the service at the Church. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in his memory to the McBride Memorial Library, 500 Market Street, Berwick, PA 18603.

“ I met Dave in 10th grade through our mutual friend, George Banyas. George was our chauffeur, as he would drive a bunch of us younger guys & girls, to Bloom to hang out (Carroll's), & we would usually end up at Stenkos to bowl. Fun times & memories, with the ever/smiling DJ!

“ DJ, I often think about the time we got "TOTO" at the Cavalier in Wildwood with Steve and Andy. That was a graduation vacation for the ages. It was an honor and privilege to be your friend. I love you man.

“ DJ was the definition of a true friend. I knew we were going to be buds when I first met him in the tenth grade. He was there for my baseball games, when I was in the hospital, best man at my first wedding, and a friend to talk to whenever necessary. There were too many good times to even start to list. God bless you and your family DJ. Whenever I hear a good song or go to a concert, you'll be there. Good Bye for now. Rod D.

“Condolences to the family. This was just way to soon and DJ will be sorely missed by everyone. But because of him, this is a small list of memories that will last with me forever.

Remember when we – snowballed at cars on Fowler, draggin’ bumpers, worked produce department at Weis Markets, Angie’s “drink up and GET OUT!”, bartending Tubby, cards at the trailer, tried to follow Rod D down the mountain in the MG, remodeling in Enola, Dayton and Richmond, Dr. Bombay’s smoke house delights, Christmas boulevard, East Berwick 500, Football hall of fame in 1 day, talked with Jim Capaldi at Montage Fun things to do – Morg-man chasing the VW, Down 2nd, up front in Berwick, Hangin out on Tuzzi’s front step, Class of 73, Run for the Diamonds party, Berwick football, Pocono and Charlotte raceway, Christmas Eve and New Years on Fowler Ave, Spiders and VCU basketball.

Friends – Ed H, Tant, Vey, Jeff B, La Crease and Mary, Dr. Bombay, Tony U, Frank’s your dad, Little Nanya, Kurt, Rod, Tubby, Fu, Hicksy, Sammy, Joe, Wacky, Dizzy, Beefy, Antnie, Morgman, Hamburger, Club burger, Rosenberger

Crusin’ in the – VW, VW, Vega, MG and whatever used car my dad owned at the time. DJ’s panel truck, Chevy van.

Places frequented – the cabin, the cabin (10 yrs. in a row), Red Rock, Wyoming Valley Mall, Tuzzi’s, Dalo’s, Caruthers, Wildwood, Cosenza’s (large, ext. cheese), Mt St Mary’s, Angie’s, the trailer, anywhere the keg was.

Concerts - Mitch Ryder and Detroit, J. Geils Band, Allman brothers at Jersey City, Yes, Joe Walsh & Johnny Winter, Traffic, Neil Young, Dave Mason
