

David P. Miller

March 6, 1950 - May 17, 2013

David Paul Miller, 63, Stillwater, passed away Friday morning, May 17th, 2013 at the V. A. Hospital in Wilkes-Barre.

Born March 6, 1950 in Philadelphia, he was a son of the late Lloyd H. "Bud" Miller and Doris E. (Ribble) Miller.

He served four years in the U. S. Air Force.

David enjoyed traveling and playing the organ in the circus band for "The Great American Circus" for 13 years. He became friends with the famous singer from the 70's, "Tiny Tim", who also sang and traveled with the circus also.

He also ran a gas station and helped out his brother, Daniel with a restaurant for 5 years in Oregon.

David recently retired from his work with the Stillwater Boro where he was Vice President of the Council. He was also caregiver for his father, Lloyd, during his last years of life.

He enjoyed playing the piano and tinkering with anything mechanical. He enjoyed hanging out with his long-time friend, Johnny Kline, at his garage in Stillwater.

Surviving are his brothers and sisters: Daniel S. Miller, Chemult, OR; his children: Albert Joseph and Jennifer; sister, Christine "Dianne" Steinert, of Bloomsburg; sister, Deborah Ann Brecht of Texas and her children: Melody Ann Moore and William Brecht; a brother, Delbert Lloyd Miller, his wife, Paula and their children: Jonathan, Scott and Nelly. David's live-in friends where he resided in Stillwater were essential in caring for his health needs.

Graveside services will be held at the convenience of the family at the Stillwater Cemetery. Memorial donations would be appreciated by the family.

“ To all of Davids Family,
I am sure David will be missed. He was a fixture in Stillwater...No matter when I would go down through Stillwater, I would see David, he always had a wave or a nice hello for me. Thoughts and Prayers are with his family.
