

Fred E. Brown

November 30, 1930 - October 7, 2010

Fred Ervin Brown, 79, of Martenas Road, Orangeville, died Thursday, October 7th, 2010 at 5:50 PM at the Geisinger Medical Center where he had been a patient since Monday.

Born November 30, 1930 in Briar Creek Township, he was a son of the late Freeman J. and Hattie R. (Evert) Brown. He was preceded in death by his wife of 55 years, Mary Lucille (Stackhouse) Brown on December 16, 2005.

He attended the former Mt. Pleasant one-room schoolhouse; the Stillwater School and later Benton Schools.

Mr. Brown proudly served his country during the Korean War in the U. S. Army.

He had been employed by the GLF Canning Company in Bloomsburg in his younger years and later worked in construction. He had been employed by the Lycoming Construction Company for many years as a heavy equipment operator retiring on November 30, 1992.

An avid outdoorsman, he especially enjoyed hunting. He also enjoyed yard sales, playing cards and was noted for being able to fix any lawn mower around.

Surviving are numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to his wife, Mary, he was preceded in death by the following brothers and sisters: Eva Marie Boudman, Millard John Brown, Harry Thomas Brown, Roy Lincoln Brown, Lester Karl Brown, Charles Robert Brown and Edna Mae Sholley.

Funeral Services will be held Monday at 12 Noon at the McMichael Funeral Home, Inc., 4394 Red Rock Road, Benton (Rt. 487) with the Rev. Darwin C. Goshorn, Orangeville United Methodist Charge, officiating. Burial will be in the Raven Creek Cemetery with military honors accorded by a joint Veterans group. Viewing, Monday from 11 AM until the time of the service at noon.
