

Jacob C. Janney

December 31, 1938 - September 24, 2009

Jacob C. Janney, 70, of R. R. 4, Towanda, died Thursday morning, September 24th, 2009 at the Towanda Memorial Hospital Emergency Room after being stricken ill at his home.

Born December 31, 1938 in Milford Square, Bucks County, he was a son of Mary B. (Bender) Janney, of Elk Grove and the late Jacob M. Janney, who died December 26th, 2006.

Mr. Janney had been employed by Swartley Electrical Contractors in Lansdale and later for John Jaeger of Perkasio. He retired in 2001.

He was of the Methodist faith. His hobbies included hunting, fishing, farming, woodworking and tinkering.

Surviving, in addition to his mother, Mary, are his wife, Judi A. (Winkler) Janney, whom he married on June 23, 1962; his children: Jacob Janney, Jr., Anthony Janney, Jeffrey Janney, all of Towanda; Judy Kerrick, of Monroeton. Also surviving are 7 grandchildren; one great grandson; his brothers and sisters: Nancy Fox, of Benton; Ronald Janney and his wife, Roxie, of Fountain Hill; Sandra Rosenberger of Benton; Robert Janney, of Benton; Linda Reily and her husband, Stuart, of Allentown; Barry Janney and his wife, Evelyn, of Benton; Judy Ashelman and her husband, Glen, of Stillwater; David Janney and his wife, Linda, of Benton; Susan Reabuck and her husband, Joe, of Stillwater.

In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by a brother, Daniel Janney on October 10, 1996 and a sister, Irene Swartley on July 26, 2006.

A private family viewing will be held at the McMichael Funeral Home, Inc., Benton followed by a graveside service, Monday at 2 PM at St. James Cemetery, Fishing Creek Township. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in his memory to the Bradford County Humane Society, Ulster, PA or to Stray Haven in Nichols, NY.
