

James D. "Jim" "Smoky" Eisenhart

November 12, 1928 - October 23, 2014

James D. "Jim", "Smoky" Eisenhart, 85, passed away in the Village of Central on Thursday, October 23, 2014 surrounded by his family. He was under the care of Columbia Montour Hospice.

Born, November 12, 1928 in Frackville, he was the son of the late Walter and Cora (Smith) Eisenhart.

He was self employed as a TV repairman and installed television cable systems in Western Schuylkill County. He worked at St. Joseph's School and retired from McAdoo Cogen Plant where he worked as a weigh master and chief security guard.

In 1985 he and his wife, Pat, purchased a small farm house in the village of Central near North Mountain which they just loved. He attended Christ United Methodist Church in Central.

Jim enjoyed bowling, playing pool, darts and was an avid hunter and fisherman. He was a perfectionist at carving ducks from balsa wood and sail ships from scratch. His daughters loved to bring him things to fix. Other hobbies included trains and planes. The local farmers were grateful to him for ridding their farms of pesty groundhogs.

He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Pat (Budusky) and the following children: Debbie Dunsmore, Lakeland, FL; Brenda Steif and her husband, Charles, of State College; Linda James, of Frackville; James Eisenhart, Jr. of Ashland; Dianne Brennan, of Ashland; Fawn Eisenhart, of Mt. Carmel; Paul Eisenhart, of Philadelphia, Patricia Yeager and her husband, Randy, of Slabtown and Holly Demansky and her husband, Dan, of Frackville. Also surviving are 15 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren. He was the last surviving member of his immediate family.

At the request of the deceased, services will be held at the convenience of the Family. Contributions may be made in his memory to St. Jude's Children Memorial Hospital, 262 Danny Thomas Place, Memphis, TN 38105-3678. Arrangements are under the direction of the McMichael Funeral Home, Inc., Benton.

“ There are no words to ease the pain of loosing a loved one. I only can say that time heals. Memories are hidden in one's heart and mind and can't be taken away by anyone. Praying that God will ease the discomfort, soothe the aches, and provide and His peace to all.
