

John Eustice, Jr.

January 4, 1932 - May 3, 2012

John "Jack" Eustice, Jr., 80, of Stillwater, died early Thursday morning, May 3rd, 2012 at the Geisinger Medical Center, Danville where he had been a patient for the past 10 days.

Born January 4, 1932 in Courtdale, Luzerne County, he was a son of the late John Eustice, Sr. and Marian (Parks) Eustice. He and his wife, Anna G. (Yablonski) Eustice, would have celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary this August 22nd.

Mr. Eustice had worked for Lee Tires, then worked security for PSFS Bank and Sears Warehouse. He later worked in construction and plastering, retiring in 1984. He was well known for being a gunsmith specializing in gun checkering.

He attended Myers High School in Wilkes-Barre and then enlisted in the U. S. Army where he attained the rank of Corporal. He was awarded the Purple Heart, the C. I. B. Pres. Unit Citation, the Silver Star, the Bronze Star Medal and the Korean Service Medal with 5 bronze stars.

An avid outdoorsman, he enjoyed hunting and fishing. He was a life member of the N. R. A. and a member of the American Legion in Wilkes-Barre.

Surviving, in addition to his wife, Anna, are his 3 children: John B. Eustice, and his wife, Lisamarie, of Damascus, Maryland; Renee A. Hansen, of Covington, Washington; Nanette M. Gatlos and her husband, Michael, of Phoenixville, Pennsylvania; 7 grandchildren: Jake, Larissa, Nicole, Austin, Veronica, Michael and Aaron; a brother, Daniel Eustice, of Wilkes-Barre and a step brother, Neil Eustice of Milford.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by two step brothers: Ronald and William Eustice.

Private graveside services will be held at the convenience of the family at Valley Forge Gardens Cemetery, King of Prussia. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in his memory to Christ the King Catholic Church, P. O. Box 297, Benton, PA 17814.
