

John Larue Young

April 28, 1946 - May 25, 2016

John Larue Young, 70, of Central Road, Benton, died early Wednesday morning, May 25th, 2016 at the home of his mother in Jackson Township following a brief illness.

Born April 28, 1946 in Jerseytown, he was a son of Freeda P. (Robbins) Young, of Benton and the late Joseph L. Young, Sr., who died in 1967.

Mr. Young attended Benton Schools and worked in construction as a heavy equipment operator. He had been employed by Jr. Rosencrans, J. Nevin Hartman, Inc., Wenner Burton Construction Company and the Vansock's. He had also worked for the former Yost Tire Company in Benton years ago. He retired in 1987.

He enjoyed tinkering and fixing things and also enjoyed flea markets and auctions.

Surviving, in addition to his mother, Freeda, are his three children: Wendy S. Paul and her husband, Harry, of Lykens, PA; John A. Young and his wife, Wendy, of Nescopeck; Dawn E. Lenz and her husband, Jim, of York; two grandchildren: Maggie May Young and Tad Martin Young; his siblings: Joseph L. Young, Jr. and his wife, Sharon, of Bloomsburg; Bonnie Burman, of Mountaintop; Carol Remphrey and her husband, Derl, of Benton; James L.

Young and his wife, Linda, of Benton and numerous nieces and nephews.

Along with his father, he was preceded in death by a sister, Jeannie McBride.

Private graveside services will be held at New Rosemont Cemetery, Espy. Arrangements are under the direction of the McMichael Funeral Home, Inc., 4394 Red Rock Road, Benton. For online condolences or for additional information, please visit our website: www.mcmichaelfuneralhome.com
