“ This is the most requested passage I use at the funeral services I conduct. This is for Elwood, Helen and all the Children. It is called Immortality:

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. . . I do not sleep
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond sparkling on the snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awake in the morning's hush,
I am the swift's up flinging rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft star-shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry. . .
I am not there. I did not die.*
