“ Considered one of my best friends growing up. Michael was always generous and a good friend. We became friends when we first met in Mr. Chase art class at NPHS. We always hung out from there during and after our school years. Lost touch with him as we all experience in life. Deeply saddened that we won't make a connection again in this lifetime. I know the Lord is watching over him as he does for all His children. I miss you again Mike. Since I learned of your passing I find myself remembering all the good times we shared and drinks we had. You were a brother to me. Love you bro. We will meet again.
