“ TO: Rick, Vickie and family: I just received The Press Enterprise newspaper yesterday (Sat, April 26) and read of Phyllis's passing on Tuesday. I apologize that I didn't know it sooner. I dated Phyllis in high school and she was the kindness, most loving and caring young lady and always had a smile on her face. She meant a lot to me. My life has been richly blessed by knowing her. But she knew God and so someday I hope to talk to her again in heaven. My wife Janet, our Children Beth and Eric, and myself pray that you and your families will be touched by God's Grace and Peace and may He put His arms around you and comfort you as you mourn the lost of a mother, grandmother, but most of all a Child of God. God Bless you all. Richard (Dickie) McHenry. Enterprise, Alabama
