Although there are no words to take away the sorrow you are feeling, may it be of some comfort to know you are all in our thoughts and prayers. It is so hard to understand why things happen in this crazy world we live in. All we can do is place our trust in God and leave the rest to him as I know your family does. “ Randy, Denise, Allan and Danielle, We're so sorry for you loss of Russell. He meant very much to our family. We considered him a very good friend. Russ had touched so many people in his life in just a short time and that is a great feat in itself. The joy and humor and laughter that came from him... and because of him, was a gift. I know we will cherish every moment and memory that we have. God heals all things in time and he does have a reason, a reason for everything. We just need to trust in that word. We believe that we will see Russell again someday and smile once again. Bless you all. With all our love, The Charles###imported-begin##Shelly, Tim, Adrianna Stahl, & Hunter Charles###imported-end##

The friends and family whose lives he touched in his short time on this earth. God Bless you all!###imported-begin##Tammy Chapin and son Travis (Chad's family)###imported-end##

We loved Russ. He was such a good friend to our family. The MANY years we got to spend with him during soccer seasons, will always be a treasure to us. What an incredible athlete he was...so very talented. We appreciated his laughter and his fun-loving personality. He and Billy shared such a special friendship and bond. Those two young men seemed to be so much alike. Russ was a huge influence on Billy and our hearts are breaking at this time. We are so very sorry that he was taken so young, and we know that words are not enough to remove the horrible pain you are feeling. Only God can help to comfort and heal such deep tragic sorrow.
